

Example template for Task One:

The description of the setting helps to create a cheerful optimistic mood. For example, when _____, the author writes how there is a “unicorn statue that’s pooping a rainbow.” This happy image suggests _____ because it demonstrates how _____. This is like later in the chapter when the narrator sees a “plate full of delicious cupcakes.” As before, this establishes _____, since _____. All in all, the writer is trying to communicate the idea that _____.

Example template for Task Two:

In the first chapter, the main character could be described as _____. For example, when _____, he “burns down the stack of failing essays in a rage.” This shows how _____, which leads the reader to understand _____ because _____. In the same way, later in the chapter he “punches the lazy student in the throat.” Obviously this demonstrates _____, since _____. In sum, the protagonist is definitely _____, established by _____.