

Help with the Chapter Three Assignment

- You do not have to use the words “odd moment” in your paragraph.
- You do not even have to prove the moment is odd.
- You only have to identify two weird moments that reveal something about one of the three main characters.
- You do not have to write about two separate characters. For example, your three moments could all say something about Felipe Montero.
- You are probably going to end up explaining what the character’s reaction to the event reveals about them.

Topic Sentence Example

- When ____ [summarize the weird moment], it reveals ____ about ____.

Guiding Questions for what it reveals

- What does the character’s reaction reveal about his or her personality?
- What does the character’s reaction reveal about his or her motivation for action?
- How is this moment important to the work as a whole?
